

OSHER 2024 SUMMER SERIES

OSHER 2024 SUMMER SERIES
OSHER 2024 SUMMER SERIES
OSHER 2024 SUMMER SERIES

SUMMER LECTURES

The History of the Port of Baltimore

10:30 - 11:30

Friday, June 5, 10:30 - 11:30

The history of the Port of Baltimore is a story of growth, change, and resilience. From its early days as a small harbor to its current status as a major international port, the Port has played a vital role in the development of the city and the state. This lecture will explore the Port's history from the 17th century to the present, highlighting key events and figures that have shaped its identity. We will also discuss the Port's impact on the local economy and the challenges it faces in the future.

10:30 - 11:30

The Port of Baltimore is a major international port, and its history is a story of growth and change. From its early days as a small harbor to its current status as a major international port, the Port has played a vital role in the development of the city and the state. This lecture will explore the Port's history from the 17th century to the present, highlighting key events and figures that have shaped its identity. We will also discuss the Port's impact on the local economy and the challenges it faces in the future. 16

Christian Nationalism, The Capitol Riot, and the Growing Threat to American Pluralism

10:30 - 11:30

Friday, June 12, 10:30 - 11:30

Christian nationalism is a growing movement in the United States, and it has become a major threat to American pluralism. This lecture will explore the history of Christian nationalism, its current resurgence, and its impact on American society. We will also discuss the Capitol riot and the growing threat to American pluralism. 6, 2021

The Captain, "Pop" Warner, and the Carlisle Indian School

1. Date: 10/10/2019

2. Time: 10:30 AM

The Carlisle Indian School was a boarding school for Native American children. It was founded in 1879 and was the first boarding school for Native American children. The school was named after Richard Henry Stoddard, a prominent educator and reformer. The school was located in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The school was a boarding school for Native American children. It was founded in 1879 and was the first boarding school for Native American children. The school was named after Richard Henry Stoddard, a prominent educator and reformer. The school was located in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

The school was a boarding school for Native American children. It was founded in 1879 and was the first boarding school for Native American children. The school was named after Richard Henry Stoddard, a prominent educator and reformer. The school was located in Carlisle, Pennsylvania. The school was a boarding school for Native American children. It was founded in 1879 and was the first boarding school for Native American children. The school was named after Richard Henry Stoddard, a prominent educator and reformer. The school was located in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Indigenous Americans in Statuary Hall

1. Date: 10/10/2019

2. Time: 10:30 AM

The Statuary Hall in the U.S. Capitol building contains statues of indigenous Americans. The statues were created by various artists and were placed in the hall in the 19th century. The statues represent different tribes and are a significant part of the history of the United States. The statues were created by various artists and were placed in the hall in the 19th century. The statues represent different tribes and are a significant part of the history of the United States.

The Statuary Hall in the U.S. Capitol building contains statues of indigenous Americans. The statues were created by various artists and were placed in the hall in the 19th century. The statues represent different tribes and are a significant part of the history of the United States. The statues were created by various artists and were placed in the hall in the 19th century. The statues represent different tribes and are a significant part of the history of the United States.

Bollywood: The History, Industry, and Current Trends

31 10:30

The history of Bollywood is a complex and multifaceted one, spanning over a century. It is a blend of Indian and Western influences, creating a unique cinematic style that has captivated audiences worldwide. The industry has grown from a small-scale operation in the early 20th century to a global powerhouse today.

The industry has seen significant growth in the past few years, with a surge in production and distribution. This has led to a new wave of talent and a more diverse range of stories being told on the screen.

Key figures in the industry include the late Bimal Roy, who is credited with creating the modern Bollywood style. Other notable names include Yash Chopra, Karan Johar, and Anurag Kashyap. The industry has also seen a rise in female-led films, reflecting a growing awareness of gender equality.

The industry continues to evolve, with new technologies and platforms changing the way films are made and consumed. The future of Bollywood is bright, with a wealth of talent and a growing global audience.