

Overview: An Employee Grievance is initiated by first presenting the grievance to the employee's supervisor/director for informal discussion. Following that discussion, an employee, or the representative may present the grievance in writing using this form, to the Department Head; Chairperson or their designated representative.

Special Action Appeals are appeals to Charges for Removal; Involuntary Demotion; Suspension; Suspension Pending Charges for Removal; or Rejection on Probation. Special Action Appeals are initiated at Step Two and are heard by a hearing officer designated by Vice President for Human Resources. If you do not know who the designated hearing officer is, send the appeal to or call the Office of Human Resources at x4-6015.

Name: _____ Employee ID: _____

Job Title: _____ Department: _____

Employee's representative name, if any: _____

Explain Grievance:

What do you feel should be done to resolve this matter?

(Employee signature)

(Date)

Step One – Management Decision: (can be attached on separate sheet)

Date Received:

Date of Decision:

